From rubber to polymers, Summit County has for more than a century been at the forefront of innovation. For this and many other reasons we attract some of the best emerging technology and advanced manufacturing companies.

If you want your business to be competitive on the local, national or global scale, Summit will work with our economic development partners to help make that happen. We already have such industry giants as Goodyear, GOJO, FirstEnergy, Sterling, and more. Summit County is a major player in the region's strong biomedical sector as well (think Akron General Health System, Summa Health, and Akron Children's Hospital).

And with a vibrant central city, comfortable surrounding communities, an internationally-renowned research university, and a national park - to name just a few - Summit is the ideal place to live and work. Our residents have both a wide range of employment opportunities and countless recreational activities.

So if you're thinking of moving to Summit County, we urge you to do so and thank you for your consideration. Please give us a call and find out the many ways we can help you.
