Akron Man Guilty of Murder

(February 8, 2012... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that late yesterday, after less than an hour of deliberations, a jury found Terrence Minor, 28, of Carroll Street in Akron, guilty of Aggravated Murder with a gun specification, Murder with a gun specification and Having Weapons Under Disability, a third-degree felony.

On September 18, Minor drove to Day Street in Akron with the intent of fighting his girlfriend's brother. When Minor got to Day Street, he fired a gun over the roof of his car toward another brother of his girlfriend, Demetrion Wilson, striking him in the chest and killing him. Then Minor and two unknown male accomplices drove away. Minor was found by police hiding under a bed in Cleveland.

Judge Tom Teodosio will sentence Minor on March 7 at 9:00 a.m.
