Clayton George Sentenced to Life without Parole

(February 10, 2014... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Judge Mary Margaret Rowlands sentenced Clayton A. George, 31, of 27th Street in Akron, to two consecutive terms of life in prison for raping two girls, then ages six and nine, over the course of one year. He will not be eligible for parole.

“These two young girls can now begin the healing process and start to move forward with their lives with the knowledge that Clayton George can never again harm them,” said Prosecutor Walsh. “To face their abuser in court took a level of courage that no child should ever have to endure. I am proud of those girls.”

On January 22, a jury found George guilty of two counts of Rape.
