Man Receives 18 year Sentence for Felonious Assault

(September 18, 2014... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Judge Paul Gallagher sentenced Edward J. Osborne, 61, of Warren, to 18 years in prison. Osborne received an 8 year sentence with an added 10 years for being a repeat violent offender.

On April 17, 2013, Osborne convinced his ex-girlfriend to meet him at Popeye's Chicken in Akron. Two of her friends decided to follow her because they were concerned for her safety. Once there Osborne and an unknown male friend began arguing with the victims. Osborne stabbed one victim and struck the other with his vehicle before fleeing.

A jury found Osborne guilty of two counts of Felonious Assault, felonies of the second degree, on August 8.
