Akron Woman Found Guilty of Stealing from Chapel Hill Mall Store

AKRON, Ohio (Thursday, June 04, 2015) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Alison McCarty found Taneisha Taylor, 23, of Everton Drive in Akron, guilty of stealing from a department store at Chapel Hill Mall.

Judge McCarty found Taylor guilty of the following charge

- Robbery – a felony of the second degree

On December 31, 2014, Taylor was with four other women at the JC Penney at Chapel Hill Mall. A loss prevention specialist spotted Taylor placing clothes in her purse and stopped her as she was about to leave the store. Taylor escaped after pushing & kicking the loss prevention specialist. Akron Police arrived and found Taylor in the mall parking lot with the stolen merchandise.

Judge McCarty is scheduled to sentence Taylor on June 18th at 1:00 pm.
