Violent Sexual Predator Sentenced to Life in Prison for Brutal Rape

AKRON, Ohio (Wednesday, May 13, 2015) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Lynne Callahan sentenced Dwayne Fain, 18 of Akron, to life in prison, with parole eligibility after 15 years. Judge Callahan also determined Fain to be a sexually violent predator. Fain is also a Tier III sex offender.

On April 1, 2015, Fain pled guilty to the following charges

- Two counts of rape, felonies of the first degree
- One count of kidnapping, a felony of the first degree
- One count of felonious assault, a felony of the second degree
- One count of tampering with evidence, a felony of the third degree

Fain admitted to investigators that he wore a mask and cape when he broke into the victim's home, where he raped her at knife-point.

"What Fain did to his victim is unimaginable," said Prosecutor Walsh. "He deserves to spend the rest of his life in prison after breaking into the victim's home and raping her at knife-point. I hope today's sentence gives the victim some relief, knowing Fain will be locked up for a long time."
