Akron Man Sentenced to 15 Years for Robbing Woman at Gunpoint

AKRON, Ohio (Wednesday, May 27, 2015) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Christine Croce sentenced Deandre Scott, 26, of Akron, to 15 years and three months in prison. Scott must serve at least six years of that sentence because he used a gun during the robbery. Scott was also labeled a Tier I sex offender.

On May 22, 2015, Scott was found guilty of the following charges:

- Aggravated Burglary with a firearm specification – a felony of the first degree
- Aggravated Robbery with firearm specification – a felony of the first degree
- Gross Sexual Imposition – a felony of the fourth degree

On December 16, 2014, Scott forced his way into a home on Douglas Street in Akron. Scott pulled a gun on the victim and led her around the home looking for items to steal. Scott eventually took the victim to a bedroom where he pushed her on a bed sexually assaulted her. Scott then stole $5,000 and an iPad.
