Summit County Child Support Enforcement Agency Honored CSEA Receives 5 Awards for Outstanding Performance

AKRON, Ohio (Monday, December 19, 2016) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that the Summit County Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) was recently honored by Ohio’s Office of Child Support for outstanding performance.

In the most recent Awards for Outstanding Performance, Prosecutor’s Child Support Enforcement Agency was recognized with the following achievements:

- Most Improved Collections on Cases with Arrears in the Metro Caseload Division for 2016
- Best Performance Paternity Establishment in the Metro Caseload Division for 2016
- Best Performance Support Order Establishment in the Metro Caseload Division for 2016
- Best Performance Collections on Current Support in the Metro Caseload Division for 2016
- Best Overall Performance in the Metro Caseload Division for 2016

“I am very proud of my child support enforcement unit. They work tirelessly to help families get the support they so desperately need,” said Prosecutor Walsh. “These awards are a wonderful tribute to the agency and everyone who works there. Thank you to everyone who was involved.”

The Metro Caseload Division includes the six largest counties in Ohio; Cuyahoga, Hamilton, Franklin, Lucas, Montgomery, and Summit.
