Summit County Employee Recognition Day Recognizes 19 Employees; Russ Pry Honored with the Cliff Skeen Award

Summit County Executive Ilene Shapiro joined other Summit County elected officials at the High Point Award ceremony on June 21 to recognize nineteen Summit County employees for their outstanding service. Each year, participating County Officeholders nominate and select employees who consistently exceed expectations and show exemplary work to receive Summit's High Point Awards.

The following employees were recognized for 2017:

Executive Office: Lindsay Seib, Wanda Hunt, Kimberly Rice, Kimm Bosko, Matt Sabo, Vic Klett

Clerk of Courts: Heather Czubaj, Jaylene Gable

Domestic Relations Court: Nancy Davis

Engineer: Jeff Bell, Dawn Harpster, Jeremiah Stonestreet, Eugene Wilson

Fiscal: Bev Coble, Corey Linke, Tim Hunton

Sheriff: Pam Moore, Charles "Chuck" Sweeney, Jeannine Jones

"I can't think of a better way to kick off the summer than to recognize some of Summit County's brightest stars," said Executive Shapiro. "We have so many fantastic employees who go above and beyond to serve the citizens of Summit County and I congratulate and thank all of our 2017 High Point Award recipients for truly making Summit County the High Point of Ohio."

County Executive Shapiro also honored Summit County's late Executive, Russ Pry, with the Cliff Skeen Lifetime Achievement Award. This award is given annually to an outstanding Summit County citizen who has dedicated a significant portion of their life to community service. "It was my great pleasure to honor the memory of my dear friend Russ Pry with the Cliff Skeen Award," said Executive Shapiro. "Russ's passion for public service and helping people guided his entire professional career. He was a man who embodied the higher calling of service to others."
