County Executive Ilene Shapiro, Mayors Walters, Kline, Armstrong, Hovey Host Open For Business Discussion in Cuyahoga Falls

On Friday, October 14, 2016, from 8 a.m.-10:30 a.m., Summit County Executive Ilene Shapiro, along with City of Cuyahoga Falls Mayor Don Walters, City of Stow Mayor Sara Kline, City of Munroe Falls Mayor James Armstrong, and Village of Silver Lake Mayor Bernie Hovey and in partnership with the Cuyahoga Falls Chamber of Commerce and the Stow-Munroe Falls Chamber of Commerce, will host an Open for Business discussion at the Quirk Cultural Center, 1201 Grant Avenue, Cuyahoga Falls. The public is welcome, but reservations are needed.

The brainstorming session and information exchange will allow citizens and business owners to meet with public officials and participate in discussions about small business, economic development, new funding sources, new workforce programs, and new opportunities. There will also be booths with information on what county agencies and organizations can do to assist economic development in the Cities of Cuyahoga Falls, Munroe Falls, Stow and the Village of Silver Lake.

“I look forward to sitting down with local leaders, business owners and citizens for conversations about creating and retaining jobs, while improving and developing a stronger workforce,” stated Summit County Executive Ilene Shapiro.

For more information, or to make a reservation, please contact Tina Merlitti by Tuesday, October 11th at 330-643-8626 or tmerlitti@summitoh.net.
