SUMMIT COUNTY EXECUTIVE ILENE SHAPIRO'S DEPARTMENT OF JOB AND FAMILY SERVICES OFFERS SURPLUS FURNITURE TO AREA NON-PROFITS

On Saturday, October 15, 2016, Summit County Executive Ilene Shapiro's Department of Job and Family Services will make available all surplus furniture to area non-profits. The furniture has become available due to the recent move of the Department's operations to the new Triangle Building located at 1180 S. Main St., Akron, OH 44301. Available furniture includes (but is not limited to): tables, chairs, file cabinets and various other office furniture.

All surplus inventory will be available on Saturday, October 15, 2016 from 9:00am to 5:00pm at 47 N. Main St., Akron, OH 44308. Non-profits are also instructed that this giveaway is for pickup only, and capacity to move and transport items is required as there will be no delivery service available.

"I think it is a great opportunity to find further use of the County's surplus furniture, while at the same time assisting non-profits that may not be able to afford purchasing new office furniture," said County Executive Ilene Shapiro, "anything we can do to help the community, we will do."

Non-profits that are interested in participating in this giveaway are asked to RSVP to shmcnulty@summitoh.net and receive your NPO Donation Application Packer by Friday, October 14, 2016.

Please direct all questions to Shannon McNulty in the Summit County Executive Ilene Shapiro's Department of Finance and Budget – Purchasing. She can be reached at (330) 643-2557 or shmcnulty@summitoh.net
