Man sentenced to seven years for hurting his son

(August 27, 2009) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Zachary Robinson, 23, of Uniontown, was sentenced to seven years in prison by Judge Lynne Callahan after pleading guilty on August 3, 2009, to Felonious Assault and Endangering Children, felonies of the second degree, and Endangering Children, a felony of the third degree.

On January 30, 2009, Robinson's nine-week-old son stopped breathing and the parents called 911. Green Fire and EMS took the baby to Akron Children's Hospital where expert Dr. Steiner examined the baby. Dr. Steiner discovered multiple injuries in various stages of healing (broken legs, broken toe, broken arm, and six broken ribs).
