Woman sentenced to two years prison for son drowning in pool

(November 10, 2009) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Krystal Krause, 25, of Cleveland, was sentenced to two years in prison by Judge Judith Hunter for charges relating to the drowning death of her three-year-old son.

On October 8, 2009, Krause pled guilty to Child Endangering, a felony of the third degree, and Reckless Homicide, a felony of the third degree.

On June 19, 2009, Krause was at her parent's home in Cuyahoga Falls, who had custody of their grandson, when she was left alone with him. The child drowned in the family pool.
