7 Years in Prison for Xbox Robbery

(June 6, 2012... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that visiting Judge Robert Brown sentenced Jeremy Culver, 18, of Chamberlin Road in Fairlawn, and Shawn Davis, 20, of Seward Avenue in Akron, to seven years in prison after robbing a man trying to sell his Xbox on Craigslist.

Last December, Culver arranged to meet with the victim, who was selling his Xbox on Craigslist. The two agreed to meet at the victim's house. At the house, Culver agreed to purchase the Xbox, then walked onto the porch. Three men wearing black hoodies immediately charged into the house. One of the men, Davis, held a gun to the victim's head and ordered him to his knees. As the three discussed ransacking the house, Davis looked away from the victim, who took that opportunity to pull a gun from his waistband and shoot at Davis. The three men fled the house.

On May 2, a jury found Culver and Davis guilty of Aggravated Burglary and Aggravated Robbery. Davis was also found guilty of two firearm specifications.
