Akron Teen Sentenced to 15 Years in Prison for Robbery Spree

(April 4, 2013... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Judge Amy Corrigan Jones sentenced Dvante Suddeth, 18, to 15 years in prison.

Between September 19 and October 1, Suddeth committed a series of robberies in Akron. He robbed the Georgio's Pizza on West Market Street once and Pandora Highland Square on South Highland Avenue twice. Suddeth also robbed a man who was walking from work to his home on Casterton Avenue. Suddeth dropped the mask he was wearing when he robbed the man. Akron police found the mask, which contained Suddeth's DNA.

On March 3, Suddeth pleaded guilty to four counts of Aggravated Robbery, felonies of the first degree, and one gun specification.
