Alfonzo Henderson Guilty of Shooting Man

(July 26, 2013... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that yesterday a jury found Alfonzo Henderson, Jr., 26, of Akron, guilty of Aggravated Robbery, a felony of the first degree with a three-year firearm specification; Aggravated Burglary, a felony of the first degree with a three-year firearm specification; Felonious Assault, a felony of the second degree with a three-year firearm specification; and Having Weapons Under Disability, a felony of the third degree.

On January 2, 2013, Henderson and two other men kicked in the door of a home on Miles Street. Henderson, surprised to find anyone home, shot a man inside multiple times, and then ran from the house. The victim was able to identify the shooter when police arrived.

Judge Alison McCarty will sentence Henderson on August 9 at 9:00 a.m.
