Eight Years in Prison for not Disclosing HIV Status

(March 11, 2013... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that visiting Judge Robert Brown sentenced Kelley Bean, 48, of Southwest Avenue in Lima, to eight years in prison.

Bean, who is HIV positive, had sex with two different men without telling them she had HIV before she had sex with them.

A jury found Bean guilty of two counts of Felonious Assault on February 8.
