Akron Man Guilty of Throwing Woman Out of Window

(November 27, 2013... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that a jury found Luis Martinez, 37, of Chalker Street in Akron, guilty of Felonious Assault, a felony of the second degree.

On July 31, Martinez got into an argument with the girlfriend of one of his tenants. Martinez hung the woman by her ankles out of a second-floor window, yelling and threatening to kill her, and then threw her to the ground. The woman broke her leg when she fell. A teenaged neighbor and her mother saw the woman hanging out of the window and called 911.

Judge Tammy O'Brien will sentence Martinez at 1:00 p.m. on December 19.
