

NEWS
For Immediate Release:
Monday, December 15, 2014

CONTACT: Faye Nicholson
Phone: (330) 643-8386

Lloyd McMillen Found Guilty of Theft from the Elderly

AKRON, OHIO – December 15, 2014 – Summit County Prosecuting Attorney Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that on December 12, Lloyd McMillen, 39, of W. 129th Street in Cleveland was found guilty by a jury of Theft From The Elderly, a felony of the fifth degree.

On November 30, 2012, McMillen was hired by a 74-year-old woman to repair her leaky roof. After McMillen said he completed the work the victim paid him $330.00 for the cost of the repair. Shortly after, the victim noticed the roof was still leaking. She attempted to contact McMillen without success. In February of 2013, the roof was inspected and it was discovered that no work had been performed on the roof in 2012. McMillen refused to return any money. In August of 2013, a new roofing company successfully completed the repairs. Cuyahoga Falls Police investigated and McMillen was charged with Theft from the Elderly, a felony offense.

“I am very disturbed when people like McMillen think they can take advantage of the elderly and get away with it,” said Prosecutor Walsh. “I hope that Lloyd McMillen’s felony conviction sends a message to scam artists to stay out of Summit County!”

McMillen will be sentenced by Judge Amy Corrigan-Jones on Monday, December 29, 2014 at 1:30 p.m.